

P R E S S R E L E A S E

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Joe Durkin
Senior Director of Corporate Communications
727-329-2926
Joe.Durkin@mybriighthouse.com

Jennifer Mooney
Vice President Corporate Public & Gov't Affairs
(407) 210-3165
Jennifer.Mooney@mybriighthouse.com

BRIGHT HOUSE NETWORKS TO DELIVER NBC UNIVERSAL'S OLYMPIC EXPERIENCE TO DIGITAL VIDEO AND ROAD RUNNER CUSTOMERS

NBC Universal Partnership to Provide Olympic High-Definition, Free On Demand and Online Programming

St. Petersburg, August 4, 2008 – Bright House Networks in agreement with NBC Universal will provide its customers with NBC's best coverage of the 2008 Beijing Olympics games. A complete schedule of NBC Universal coverage is available at NBCOlympics.com. The world's premier event, to commence on Friday, Aug. 8, at 8 p.m. ET, will showcase Bright House Networks advanced technology, as well as cable's broad digital offerings and deep and rich content across multiple digital platforms, including video-on-demand (VOD), high-definition (HD), broadband, and more.

In addition to the more than 1,200 total hours of Olympics coverage on seven NBC Universal networks (NBC, USA Network, MSNBC, CNBC, Oxygen, Telemundo and Universal HD), Bright House Networks, will allow customers to watch and be a part of the Olympics in-Games with Free-On-Demand and HD services, as well as broadband content from NBCOlympics.com via a link from the Road Runner website.

Also, customers will enjoy NBCU's two HD sport-specific channels for soccer and basketball, in addition to Olympic competition programming for various sports with commentary in one of the host country's native tongues, Mandarin (Chinese), as well as Korean.

NBCU's In Games-Free-on-Demand content will feature daily highlights, in addition to access to the best events each day. Content includes overall daily highlights by sport (approximately 15 per day, some in HD), and "Rewind," approximately 10 of the best sessions/games per day. Available in standard definition and HD, standard definition on-demand content will be available through the Sports-on-Demand portal and the HD content will be available through HD Showcase-on-Demand. Content will be made available on-demand beginning 8/10 until 8/30.

Via the RoadRunner.com portal, Road Runner subscribers will be able to link to NBCOlympics.com to access 2,200 hours of 25 events streamed live, plus full-event video replays, extensive highlights, including daily recaps of key events, best-of montages, commentator analysis and athlete-specific clips each day.

"We are pleased to offer our customers NBC Universal's coverage of the 2008 Beijing Olympics which showcases the power of Bright House Networks digital video and Road Runner High Speed services," said Mike Robertson, President of Bright House Networks, Tampa Bay Division. "This programming includes an unprecedented amount of High Definition, On-Demand and Broadband Olympics-related content; all made easily accessible for no additional charge to our digital video and Road Runner subscribers."

About Bright House Networks

Bright House Networks is the nation's 6th largest multiple cable system operator (MSO) with 2.4 million customers in several large markets including Bakersfield, California; Birmingham, Alabama; Detroit, Michigan; Indianapolis, Indiana; Orlando, Florida (Central Florida Division) and Tampa Bay, Florida along with several other smaller systems in Alabama and the Florida Panhandle. The high-growth Tampa/Central Florida markets are contiguous and form one of the country's largest cable clusters. Bright House Networks corporate locations are in Syracuse, New York and Orlando, Florida.

###

Please check with local listings for detailed information on event coverage.